Hi Holly,

Thanks for this. I've copied Daniel Hartwig on this email. Beginning tomorrow I'll be away from the office until early February. Laura and Daniel may be able to get these to you by the end of next week. They can advise you about that.

Best wishes,

Hi Lisa and Laura,

My co-producer, Kyra Lyons, and I are excited to begin work on the next episode of Wisconsin Hometown Stories, which will focus on Madison. This will be a two-hour episode due to the wealth of material we have to cover!

I've CC'd Lisa Saywell on this email to keep her informed that we've started work on the project. Is there anyone else we should also loop in about work on this show starting?

When we worked in Beloit, we reached out to you both via email for image requests. Is that still the best way to proceed?

Below is our initial list of WHS images we would like to request for use in the creation of Wisconsin Hometown Stories: Madison (working title). The expected air date is currently set for early 2027. We plan to use the images we request from WHS for use in this show to promote the project in print & digital material in addition to being included in the documentary itself. This episode will be broadcasted, made available for free viewing on the PBS Wisconsin website and YouTube channel and distributed on DVD.

Would it be possible to get us these images by the end of next week?

Looking forward to working with you both again!
