THE LAND WITH JERRY APPS

“LEARN TO LOOK IN THE SHADOWS, AND LISTEN FOR THE WHISPERS, BECAUSE THE EXTENT TO WHICH YOU DO THAT IS THE EXTENT TO WHICH YOU WILL KNOW NATURE, AND KNOW IT DEEPLY.” - JERRY APPS

Join acclaimed Wisconsin author and historian Jerry Apps on a walk through the seasons with his grandsons, as he passes along lessons that can be gleaned from listening to The Land. With a wit and wisdom inherited from his father on their central Wisconsin farm, Apps recalls stories that unite the generations by informing a shared appreciation for the world around us.

A companion to Whispers and Shadows: A Naturalist's Memoir, Apps' new book from the Wisconsin Historical Society Press, The Land follows the popular Jerry Apps: A Farm Story and A Farm Winter.

The Land With Jerry Apps is produced as a partnership of the Wisconsin Historical Society and Wisconsin Public Television.

Funding for The Land With Jerry Apps was provided in part by Holiday Vacations, Ron and Colleen Weyers, Stanley J. Cottrill Fund, Carol Gainer, Wisconsin History Fund (supported in part by the National Endowment for the Humanities) and Friends of Wisconsin Public Television.
