Madison-(P)-Governor Philip F. LaFollette said in a radio address Thursday night that all able-bodied being made in the home and the men and women should be put to McCarty family will move to the order to give again to America a or four weeks. healthy, vital, normal life.

'To continue to pay great numbers of able-bodied men and women to do nothing productive over longer and longer periods of time violates every principle upon which the progress of the human race has been founded," ne said.

who has been scanning the national scene while formulating plans for his own future, reached the conclusion in the third of a series of four addresses that "no nation is so rich that it can go on indefinitely paying millions of men and women

"By the same token," he added, "our nation at least is not so poor that it cannot afford to give ablebodied men and women a real opportunity to support themselves and by their work to add to the total wealth of the country.

Basic Problem central, underlying problem we face in America is not complicated. Every city worker, every farmer, every housewife, and even children, know that work plus materials equals wealth. Able-bodied be given a real opportunity to work -not at unproductive tasks-but on Governor LaFollette praised national programs of old-age assistance and expansion and betterment of educational facilities for youth, but declared they represent nothing fundamentally new.

He declared it would not be easy to put simple, homely remedies into application on a general economic recovery program because "over a long period of years we have developed interests whose toes may have to be stepped on." Such interests, he added, include relief recipients, dispensers of relief supplies and services, and politicans. Need Common Action

"As individuals we are caught in a trap and there is little or nothing that we can do," the governor said. "Here, it would seem, is a great common problem upon which we must have common action. That action can come only through or-

Lawrence now? Can any assurances be given that, when the present $4,500,000,000 County Board of "pump-priming" is finished, private business will be able to take up the slack? On the answer to this question depends the whole exyears at least, President Roosevelt has the power to defeat his own experiment again just as he un-questionably did in the last two Standing Committees for care of residents in the purchase

Private business insists that there must be certain changes in government policy before the field of private investment will be able to function effectively again and absorb the unemployed. Mr. Roosevelt either disagrees with the desires of the business world or thinks these requests are of no consequence. What is it that business considers essential to a sound economic position and one particularly that could make public "pumppriming" eventually successful in transferring the spending to the private investment field? Here are the fundamentals, restated now because the same old cry for alternatives to the Roosevelt policy is being raised again when there has list of alternative policies sub-

None, though a handful of senators did support Senator Lodge's proposed amendment to existing law, showing that the subject needs further consideration.

2. Clear-cut action by the Roosebusinesses by destroying such an important privately owned industry as the electric light and power business. Peace between the adbeen talked of for a long time and would mean private spending of $1,000,000,000 a year, which would turn over two or three times. Progress toward that objective? None, though Mr. Roosevelt lets it be known from time to time that he is thinking of it. He now has waited five years to do something, but he is apparently not as courageous about his left wing as he is about battling the right wing. As long as Mr. Roosevelt is dominated by political considerations, nothing will be done to revive this vital part of a private spending program.

Restoration to the government of the United States of its position as fair mediator and umpire in labor disputes, so that billions of dollais now being wasted in the interruption of economic processes might be saved and the wage-earner given the benefit of regular work. The increase in the number of state tax levies is operating as a sort of trade barrier between market areas in different parts of the country and is gradually depressing the whole economic system. Progress toward this objective? None, though Mr. Roosevelt has promised to do something about overlapping the burdensome taxes ever since his first campaign in 1932.
