Resettlement Project In Central Part Of State Is Approved At Washington

the Central Wiscon- counties. ame project was announced by Reynolds I. Nowell, Clark counties, nal director of the Resettle-administrator the official "Go Jackson, Monrae, Green Jackson, Monrae, Portage,

Wisconsin of is a typical example of the n runds made available to the lands for future development, it ederal Park Service and un- is expected, will stirrulate these tre supervision of this depart- two industries. of the government.

unal approval of the project never, checks will not be mailed to farmers whose farms have optioned until the titles are Programs for the reof nigh guality of fertility.

e successful completion of project," Regional Director work, is listed at $435.48. aned land use The situation in region is similar to that which grown up all over the country. grown up all over the country, help.

The concerning this project, W. T. Concerning this project, W. T. nate results treas not fitted for agriculture e been used by settlers who oced them during the time when ta beneved any land was a good ment Once upon the soil, e families have worked year vear only to see themselves deeply involved.

The government proposes and to these people by purang their equity in the lands occupied It will assist them locating on better soil areas re the same degree of effort have devoted to the hopeless of making lands pay that canpay will make it possible for to realize the difference beon failure and success.

Nature did not intend this reias a uncle to be used for agmeen able to repeal nature's permitted these farmers to dertake a hopeless task. Now it moses to aid them in rectifying Ferror originaly made The gov-Thent is not offering a gift. It thering help and guidance. Even sapproval of the project, ac-. on of the necessary land cance accomplished at once. There itles to be cleared, tax delin-"os and mortgages to be aded and resettlement plans to be ed out Despite these facts, o at of the project marks an eland utilization policy and will Take many families from the releasing s of failure, placing or where they will have an opwith for success."

tarmer will be compelled to against his will Most of them anvious to move outside the belt where a crop season over days is a rarity. Excepto the punchase program will made in the cases of profitable trent and moss farms. only will the program of land and resettlement give a chance "mer- bogged down in hope-Shener because of unfaver wil conditions, but also it will are large saving to local, countownship governments

ce higher quality schools Tore efficient teachers. state federal and county

Tones will be kept open in and purchased, and fire lanes to out where necessary and 📬 as roads

Tiles of counties, it is antici-" " " " be increased because of so inder economic position of ano are relocated.

Special!

thonograph

, dayen ports

Wisconsin. — Final apThe area in which lands are now being purchased for these two proement administration jects he: 1. For Site 1, in Junfor the completion of land eau, Jackson, Wood and Monroe 2. For Site 2, in Jackson and

The "problem area" Administration, Region II. economic land use conditions exist project includes Site 1 (Nece- covers a much larger portion than Site 2 (Black River is involved in the purchase pro-Plans for resettlement and gram for these two sites. It spreads be announced out, comprising portions of the counties of Adams, Juneau, Marthe first of the resettle- quette, Waushara, Clark, Columbia, This is the mist of the resetting quette, watsmara, Clark, Columbia, Dunn, Eau Claire, Green Lake, The announcement is ex- paca and Wood. All of this "probed to be followed by others in lem area" was once well-forested. hear future. Around 160,000 but has been cut over. Fires have are involved in the purchase ravaged the land. In some of the

to sites, the amount of marshes where more fertile soils , to be spent approximates prevail, drainage ditches have been constructed and agriculture has 114 farms will be purbeen practiced with fair to poor regd in Site 1, about 200 in Site sults. The cranberry and Sphagnum moss farms in the eastern and southern part of the area are recognized as leading industries and in utilization program, which general are on a paying basis The es to remove settlers from extent of these industries is limittopeles task of attempting to ed. Six cranberry marshes ema lying from unfit and re- ploy 150 to 200 men during the harat 50 l and to return the land vest season in October while 40 to grated to its proper use. In 50 women work at packing and cese, the land will be reforest- grading. The collection of ed as a game and wild life re- Sphagnum moss furnishes a little and recreation area. It is employment during the suinme proposed to develop certain Recent trends of these industries parks within the area has been downward but flooding of Fifty per cent of the farm operators are between the ages of 41 and that options now held by the 60 They are hard-working and will be taken up. many have lived on farms from 20 to 30 years. On good farms, it is believed they would do well. Frugal and industrious, many of them have and plans completed for their maintained themselves for years on annual incomes of $100 to $150 per or of farm families affected farm, plus what food they have northern Wisconsin recently pro- went to the senator's son, Haydon, camp for incidental expense. Infrom all sources, including outside ag'l said today, "will mark a are about 4,000 acres of abandoned one in the working out of farms in the area. About 25 to 35 per cent of the families in the area are on relief, and the onset of winter will mean more applications for > Cox, regional forester-biologist said: "The central Wisconsin game project is really a double one, consisting of Sites I and II.

"Both of these sites are excellent wild life areas. Both have thouonly the restoration of former wabecome productive nesting grounds become productive nesting grounds guide were not following in a sim-for a great variety of waterfowl and plar manner, he looked back and this year and was host to the parshore birds.

many miles of drainage ditches and flowages from them. Prairie chick- ter's most undignified and embarens, Sharptailed grouse, Ruffed grouse and quail are already well established on both sites and will increase tremendously under management. Deer are plentiful and winter on the higher upland areas descend no amount of effort of Site II. The western portion of Site II has numerous creeks capa-The government (by mac- ble of again becoming fine trout streams."

Chess Sponsored By Department Of Recreation Here

For the third consecutive year the ancient but ever popular mental sport of chess has been sponat of the project marks an sored by the department of public art step in the direction of a recreation. Thirty men and two women have reported at the Vocational school for the first session. and with the fine program of activities that has been planned, it is expected that many more will en-

Last Monday evening previous to individual games, J. W. McNelis, chess instructor, gave a report on the National Chess tournament which was held in Milwaukee during the past month Elmer Zufeit gave an account of events at the Illinois - Wisconsin chess picnic which was held at Grant Park, Milwaukee. Over 300 players attendce this pienic.

Several women players have alleady enrolled in the Monday evoring chess classes and it is hoped economies will come about that many more will take part in and the chraination of expenting splendid activity. Individual ov grade schools and the and group instructions for women Froment of roads and other will be held and it is hoped that to replated and non-suc-communities No hardships ranged. All those interested in "Sue to the school children or taking part in chess are urged to cecause better location come to the Vocational school on "m will mean better roads Monday evening at 7 00 o'colck

NOTICE Town of Holland

Special Town Meeting

Notice is hereby given that a special Town meeting will be held in the Town Hall, Town of Holland, at 8 P. M., Friday, October 18, 1935.

The purpose of said special meeting being to consider all matters necessary relating to the erection and construction of a new town hall, and including the voting of a bond issue as provided by statute for the purpose of financing the same in cooperation with the federal government, and that the further purpose of said special meeting being to consider such other matters as may legally come before said special meeting of the town.

A request for such meeting having been made to me in writing by twelve qualified voters of said town specifying as aforesaid the object for which such meeting is to be held. Dated this 27th day of Sep-Benj. Wissink, Town Clerk

Senator Duffy Shoots Rapids

Above are shown Senator F Ryan Duffy and his two sons, Ryan Jr and Haydon, shooting Beaver Dam Rapids in the Flambeau river. The speed of the boat was too great for the camera. Lower lett depicts Postmaster Doyle in trouble as he lands on a rock in the Flambeau. Lower right shows Postmaster Doyle, Senator Duffy and

Sen. Duffy And Sons Enjoy Flambeau Trip

coing worked out on nearby been able to produce. The average vided plenty of thrills and excite- who caught a legal sized muskie as gross income per farm on Site II ment for U. S Senator F. Ryan well as the largest black bass. The Duffy and his three sons, Ryan, party camped out on the bank of Jr, Haydon, and James, and it also the river one night, and at the end count the value of food, clothing caused considerable embarrassment of the trip all, including Jimmie and other conveniences furnished to Postmaster Frank M. Doyle of Duffy, age 9, determined that they him as well as his monthly allow Ladysmith, who accompanied them himself as being an excellent boat- next year. man, while negotiating the last pitch of Cedar Rapids, found his canoe quickly stranded on a protruding rock, and it was only after in the company of James A. Cor- rolled men demonstrate their abilithe craft was freed and could continue on down the rushing river on the trip. Senator Duffy had steered sands of acres of marsh needing his canoe through the rapids just the senater determined to make it $45. ahead of the postmaster, and when again, and Postmaster Doyle made A man is expected to stay in a ter levels and wise management to he noticed that Mr. Doyle and his the arrangements for the voyage camp at least six months. When he > rassing situation. Son Catches Muskie ever, was generally very successful the entire trip without portaging. ters, and so forth; checking of soil easily.

Margor L

JAP 18

WHAT A SPLENDID RUN

BUT GOOD BLOCKING

MADE IT POSSIBLE!

BETTY AT THE BIG GAME

Fond du Lac, Wis-(Special)-jand interesting - especially in the A trip down the Flambeau river in way of fishing The prize in angling more than $5 a month in cash at Postmaster Doyle, who prides were going to make the trip again Two years ago Senator Duffy and two of his boys made the same trip democratic state central committee. That trip proved so enjoyable that discovered what had happened. Im- ty. According to the senator, the States government to work for a "Beaver, muskrat and other furmediately he poled his craft back, bearing animals will thrive in the so that he could take a picture of rocks and "shooting" the rapids — Work Is Varies the postmaster-skipper in the lat- about 12 sets of them on the section of the river where the party

Many kinds of work are done by the men They may make trails, fished — is often a most difficult paths, simple roads, and fire lanes; task. There are also two small falls plant trees, timber survey work, The trip down the river, how- in the section, and voyagers made construction of fire towers, shel- It will expand enough to unscrew

Be Enrolled In CCC Within a few days, possibly a erosion, flood control, landscaping week, Sheboygan will again send and other work in parks and recanother 50 men into the ranks of tree pests, and diseases; and imthe CCC. There have been many provements of forests by trimming ministered by a commission, proballotments sent in the past, and an out undesirable species. The men additional 50, it has been indicated, are subject to emergency calls on will be called toward the end of this any day at any hour of the day or

Leave For Trip To

Fond du Lac, Wis. — Senator F. Ryan Duffy and Mrs Duffy left Fond du Lac Saturday night by rail for Seattle, Wash, where they will sail Wednesday for the Philippine Islands with a group of nearly 50 senators and representatives led by Vice-President John N. Garner.

important official duties would prohibit acceptance of the invitation of the Philippine government to at tend the inauguration services of the new commonwealth. Meanwhile, several problems which bothered the senator were proned out and he de-

The senator's office staff, includ-

ng the Misses Josephine Scholl,

Dorothy Rynders and Lola Halfman

and James Hughes, plan to return to Washington early this week.

Townsend Plan

Roy J. Webb, lecturer and state

organizer for the Townsend Old Age

Pension Plan, will speak at a regular meeting of the Townsend Club

Schneider hall, 519 N Eighth street.

This is an open forum and the pub-

To remove a tightly screwed-on

CAPS FROM BOTTLES

he is invited. There will be no ad

REMOVING STUBBORN

Will Talk About

cided to make the trip.

Senator Duffy decided Friday that

The Philippines

Each

month The following is a summary might to fight forest fires.

There are many chances for self of just what the CCC does for the boys and for the United States: improvement. Men have the advan-The emergency conservation work tage of recreational, library, and began on March 31, 1933, and pro-educational opportunities. vided for work as a means of re- camp provides equipment for sports neving a part of the distress library books, and magazines and and unemployment then existing study materials. Educational adthroughout the United States. After visors are kept in all of the camps. To sum it up this period in a two years of successful operation congress placed additional funds for CCC camp is a period of hard but healthy outdoor employment in an the continuance of emergency conservational work at the disposal of enterprise that promotes the president as a part of a large work and conservation and is for appropriation to provide relief and the benefit of the American pec-employment for the entire country, ple. At least six months of camp employment for the entire country. This law was approved April 8, life, food, clothing, shelter, medical service, opportunities for educa-The purpose of the CCC is to ac- tion and recreation, plus a $30 a

New Group Soon Will

complish constructive, worth-while month minimum cash allowance for work on national forests, national himself and his dependents. parks, state forests, state parks, and on other lands where such work such contribute to the welfare of the Senator And Wife country as a whole, and give to 600,000 men, many of whom have never had a chance to hold a permanent job, the opportunity to be employed in wholesome, healthful outdoor activity. In a word, the purpose is to advance a national plan for American conservation and at the same time to build

In return for the work they do the men receive their food, clothduring the term of service. In addition, they receive a minimum of $30 a month, most of which is allotted to the people who are dependent upon him, as the man does not need cluding the items enumerated above, the actual minimum cost of maintaining a man in camp for one month is $65. This takes into ac-

Some promotions may be made in the camps. Promotions to some of i5 minutes of strenuous labor that coran, present chairman of the ty are also made. These men, not more than five per cent of the authorized strength of the corps com- to be held Tuesday evening at the pany, may be paid in excess of > takes the enrollment oath he enters into a contract with the United bottle cap twist a large rubber band around it. It usually gives enough 'traction" to do the trick. Another method, if the cap is of thin metal, is to heat it slightly with a match

Old Age Pension Parley Planned

Fond du Lac, Wis. - Indications Saturday that no action will be taken on the payment of old age assistance until after the county board session in November, leads to the belief that the new law will be adably comprised of three members to be elected by the board.

Before such a program is set up, Fellenz, it was said Saturday by H. a Brooklyn scientist.

S. Northrup, chairman of the county

If the county board decides to organize a pension bureau, it is possible that all social services performed by the county, including the dispensing of mothers' pensions, blind aid and other welfare work, will be merged in one department with the pension board at the head,

Clothes and other inflammable materials, soaked in a solution of two pounds of ammonium phosconference will be held with phate and two quarts of water, Judge L. E. Lurvey and Judge H. M. will become fireproof, according to

Bob Says:

We welcome the addition of your name to our list of EASY PAY-MENT ACCOUNTS. If you need a battery, tire, heater, radio or oil — in fact anything for your car, we will gladly arrange for you 🗸 to pay a little each pay day. Quick, convenient, courteous service. No delay or red tape. Remember -MULLEN'S is "the store of cheerful credit".

Remember . . . MULLEN'S prices are lowest in town. Expert installation insures perfect satisfaction.

Delco De Luxe, etc. Hot Water and Manifold. Prices

WHY TAKE A

YOU CAN GET cheap battery

Radios

a marvel

一意

20c lo. Expert radiator and battery repairs.

Open Evenings

Chief Mesher on WATCHING FOOTBALL
AT THE GAME, CAMPIC FACE

mission charge.

YOURE AN EXPERT

NOW-THANKS TO

CHICK MEEHAN!

