

WISCONSIN HISTORICAL SOCIETY
WISCONSIN PUBLIC TELEVISION

Wisconsin Public Television

JUNEAU COUNTY

Wisconsin Hometown Stories: Juneau County tells the story of a central Wisconsin county with a history that has stretched well beyond its own boundaries.

Shaped as much by its earliest native residents and immigrant settlers as it has been by its glacial geography, the story of Juneau County is filled with perseverance, innovation, leadership and heroism. Film, archival images and interviews with historians, local citizens and experts tell the unique stories of Juneau County's distinct cities and towns, and the role its people have played in the development of Wisconsin.

Learn more about Wisconsin's history at WisconsinHometownStories.org

Wisconsin Hometown Stories: Juneau County is made possible by gifts from Philip J. and Elizabeth B. Hendrickson, Phyllis I. Moore, the Kari L. Schmidt Family, Bank of Mauston, the Jean A. Traeder and Joan M. Randolph Families, the John and Catherine Orton Family, Mildred Freymiller, Friends of Wisconsin Public Television and the Wisconsin History Fund supported, in part, by the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Wisconsin Hometown Stories is produced as a partnership of the Wisconsin Historical Society and Wisconsin Public Television.

WISCONSIN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

©2014 all rights reserved
color DVD stereo 60 minutes
subtitled in English

WISCONSIN HOMETOWN STORIES
JUNEAU COUNTY

TELLING WISCONSIN'S HISTORY, ONE TOWN AT A TIME.

Stories of innovation, perseverance and heroism capture the spirit of Wisconsin's Juneau County.