

WISCONSIN STORIES

HOME ACTIVITIES BEHIND THE LENS THE PROJECTS TELL US YOUR STORIES ARCHIVES SITE MAP

in their own words

WWII home

In their own words

Letters

More stories

Oral histories

The program

Learn more

Special features

Funder recognition

Oral histories

Battlefield and homefront experiences drawn from the collections of the Wisconsin Historical Society and the Wisconsin Veterans Museum. Includes streaming audio and written transcripts.

Letters

War-time letters written in various places, stateside and abroad, from boot camp to the front lines.

More stories

Extra documentary material from the veterans' memories, with bonus streaming audio and transcripts.

Disclaimer: These transcripts and oral histories of Wisconsin World War II veterans may contain language that can be considered profane, racially insensitive or otherwise offensive. The language has been retained to give an accurate historical record of their remarks.

WWII/In their own words: Oral histories | Letters | More stories

Wisconsin Stories | Activities | Behind the lens | The projects | Tell us your stories |

Archives | Site map

WHS site | WPT site | WDVA site | Support history | Feedback

©2000-2003. All rights reserved.

If you have trouble accessing this page, require this information in an alternative format or wish to request a reasonable accommodation because of a disability contact accessibility@wpt.org.