

The 1945 conclusion of World War II was an elating and defining moment in history. People's lives were forever altered by the global conflict. Legacy captures the memories of Wisconsin citizens who lived through the horror, and the victory. They returned to mourn the losses and rebuild their lives and communities.

Legacy is the fifth in a series of programs capturing the stories of Wisconsin citizens in uniform and on the home front. These are the people whose prospects were changed by the war, and whose resolve adjusted the course for generations to come.

Wisconsin World War II Honor Roll also is a part of the tribute. It is contained here, and for the first time provides a comprehensive list of all of Wisconsin's fallen soldiers from all branches of service. There were 8,432 who made the ultimate sacrifice on behalf of our country and this moving memorial is but one way to honor them.

Wisconsin World War II Stories is a partnership of the Wisconsin Historical Society and Wisconsin Public Television in association with the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs.

Funding for Wisconsin World War II Stories-Legacy is provided by the John and Carolyn Peterson Charitable Foundation; Duard and Dorthea Walker; Demco, a John E. Wall Family-owned business; contributors to the Wisconsin Program Fund; and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Funders for the Wisconsin World War II Stories series also include Philip J. and Elizabeth B. Hendrickson; the Ho-Chunk Nation; International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; an advised fund of the Community Foundation of Southern Wisconsin; the Krause Foundation; the Evjue Foundation Inc. - the charitable arm of The Capital Times; The Boldt Company; and the Dorothy Inbusch Foundation.
